Apologies for missing the Newsletter last week, I had a rather busy week last week. Anyways, without further ado, here is the Newsletter for this week! -

Zine Submissions Now Open!

Deadline - (31/03/2022)

It's that time of year, it is time for Zine submissions! For those unaware, the Zine is the anime society's annual magazine written by you, the members! Every article in the Zine will be produced by a member of the Anime Society and I will be the one editing and collating all of these articles into a physical print format. If you're unsure of what kind of things to talk about or how to format your article, then head on over to <https://www.nottsanime.co.uk/archives> where you can see all previous editions of the Zine in pdf format. The deadline for submissions is the 31st of March but if you could get your articles in before that, things would be a lot easier. To submit an article, contact me either on Discord (BlitzNexus#8734) or via e-mail (psymf8@nottingham.ac.uk). Don't miss the chance to put your name in Anime Society history! This announcement is going to be at the start of every Newsletter until the deadline.

Anime Society AGM (Annual General Meeting)

7pm (04/04/2022)

The AGM has officially been pencilled in for the 4th of April! For those unaware, the AGM is where we vote in the committee for next year, so it's probably the most important event of the year in many ways. There will be more exact details to follow in the coming weeks, but for now you should all think about whether or not you would like to be on the committee next year and what role you would like to run for. You don't need to go and write your manifesto just yet, we will do an announcement when applications are formally open, but if you would like to get your manifesto done and out the way you're welcome to send it to any of the current committee members anyway.

Cardboard Cosplay

7pm LG11 Trent Building (19/03/2022)

This Saturday we will be hosting a Cardboard Cosplay event in LG11 Trent Building at 7pm. We have a ton of cardboard and arts & crafts supplies prepared, the goal will be to make the best possible cosplay you can out of cardboard! This was a great event last year that produced some creative designs, so if you want to have a bit of fun making some DIY cosplay, this is the event for you! Note that this event will be ticketed and limited to 40 people as we only have a set amount of cardboard, the SU are unfortunately slow at putting the event up but I will link the page where you can book the ticket from at the top of this newsletter, so periodically check the link every now and then. We'll also do an announcement in the discord when the ticketing is up.

Anime Monday Session

7pm A41 Clive Granger Building - (14/03/2022)

Another week of anime was had, with us starting to get to the end of Bakemonogatari, here's the rundown for last session (07/03/2022):

We watched:

Episodes 11, 12 & 13 of Bakemonogatari

Episode 2 of Nanbaka

Episode 1 of How a Realist Hero Rebuilt the Kingdom

Banned until next year due to failing to get voted in 3 times:

Yona of the Dawn

A Certain Scientific Railgun

We had the start of the final arc of Bakemonogatari this week, as well as a heartwarming episode with Araragi and Senjougahara, more hijinks in Nanbaka and an isekai slightly more grounded than most with Realist Hero. We will be finishing Bakemonogatari and starting Nisemonogatari at the next session (today as of this e-mail), so make sure you're there for that!

Kaijuu no Kodomo Movie Screening

A41 Clive Granger Building - (16/03/2022)

On Wednesday we will be holding a movie screening event in A41 for Kaijuu no Kodomo. A supernatural mystery film directed by Ayumu Watanabe, a veteran anime director though perhaps recently more known for directing the Komi-san can't communicate anime adaptation. It's a decently well liked film and apparently very beautiful, so if it interests you come down to A41 on the 16th!

Wednesday Manga Book Club

7pm A41 Clive Granger Building - (23/03/2022)

Dead Dead Demon's DeDeDeDestruction proved pretty popular with a 7.33 average rating among the group, owing to its beautiful scenery, wit and of course moe. The manga for the next session on the 23rd is Kaiju Girl Caramelizer, of which we will be reading the first 4 chapters. This is a comedic manga about a girl who turns into a huge monster whenever her hearts starts pounding with affection! Continuing the trend of fairly light-hearted manga, if the first 4 chapters interest you in any way shape or form then come to A41 on the 23rd and share your thoughts!

That's all for this late newsletter (becoming more common than it being on time at this point but oh well), have a great week everyone!
