I am now (somewhat) back on track with the Newsletters, with cardboard cosplay out of the way we only have one more big event left this year - the AGM! However, there's lots more going on, such as -

Zine Submissions

Deadline - (31/03/2022)

This is your last week to get your zine submissions in (okay it isn't really I won't tell you no if you hand it in 2 days late but please :()! For those unaware, the Zine is the anime society's annual magazine written by you, the members! Every article in the Zine will be produced by a member of the Anime Society and I will be the one editing and collating all of these articles into a physical print format. If you're unsure of what kind of things to talk about or how to format your article, then head on over to <https://www.nottsanime.co.uk/archives> where you can see all previous editions of the Zine in pdf format. The deadline for submissions is the 31st of March but if you could get your articles in before that, things would be a lot easier. To submit an article, contact me either on Discord (BlitzNexus#8734) or via e-mail (psymf8@nottingham.ac.uk). Don't miss the chance to put your name in Anime Society history! This announcement is going to be at the start of every Newsletter until the deadline.

Anime Society AGM (Annual General Meeting)

7pm A41 Clive Granger Building
(04/04/2022)

The AGM is next week! For those unaware, the AGM is where we vote in the committee for next year, so it's probably the most important event of the year in many ways. Get your manifestos in this week (DM or e-mail to a current committee member) if you want to run for committee, all the current manifestos are publicly visible in the discord and they will also be displayed at the AGM itself. There is free pizza available, 35 pizzas total with 5 vegan pizzas and 2 gluten free pizzas if you require those. Note that only members can vote in the AGM so if you haven't bought your membership yet, now's the time to do that (also it lasts for a year so you'll have it for comic con and stuff next year)

Nisemonogatari Episodes 8-11 Session

A41 Clive Granger Building - (30/03/2022)

As was voted on a few weeks ago, we will be finishing off the last 4 episodes of Nisemonogatari, the final arc of that season, on the last non-manga book club Wednesday of the semester, aka the 30th of March. There's not much else to say really, if you've been keeping up with and engaging with the series thus far in the Monday sessions I'm sure you'll want to come down if not I encourage you to anyway as this arc has one of the best anime OPs in existence as well as one of the most infamous anime scenes in existence, it's something you must witness even if you aren't currently engaged with Nisemonogatari as a set series. As mentioned before, this will be our last non-manga book club Wednesday event of the semester.

Kizumonogatari Film Trilogy Binge Night

2pm B46 Trent Building (02/04/2022)

Our final Saturday event for the semester - The Kizumonogatari binge session! This will work in a similar vein to the Flip Flappers binge session we ran last year, however this time we will be binge watching the Kizumonogatari film trilogy instead. Now I want to preface that this event was decided on before Bakemonogatari was voted in as the set series, there is absolutely no committee member bias on my part in the fact that we will be having essentially a week of monogatari, none at all I assure you. But yes, we will be having a break for food inbetween last time, probably after the 2nd movie as the 3rd movie is a bit longer. The animation in Kizumonogatari is stunning and it gives context for a lot of stuff that has been mentioned in Bake and Nisemonogatari thus far, as it is chronologically the first series of events to take place. It's a brilliant film trilogy, definitely my favourite anime movies of all time, so please do come down on the Saturday the 2nd of April!

Anime Monday Session

7pm A41 Clive Granger Building -
(28/03/2022)

(Apologies you once again miss out on one of the weeks of rundown, gomenasai) Our first all Nisemonogatari session this week, as well as a throwback to the days of 2013/2014 for many of us with Attack on Titan, here's the entire rundown for last week (21/03/2022):

We watched:

Episodes 2, 3 & 4 of Nisemonogatari

Episode 1 of Date a Live

Episode 1 of Attack on Titan

Banned until next year due to failing to get voted in 3 times:

Yona of the Dawn

A Certain Scientific Railgun

A Place Further than the Universe

We're finally got into the first of the 2 proper arcs of Nisemonogatari this week, Karen Bee. We had a throwback to 2013 with the first episode of Attack on Titan, a first anime for many of us I'm sure and, well, Date a Live, a highly cultured show indeed. Next week will be our last anime Monday of the semester as we will be having the AGM on the 4th, so if you've got any episode 1s you've been burning to get in next week's your chance!

Wednesday Manga Book Club

7pm A41 Clive Granger Building -
(06/04/2022)

Kaiju Girl Caramelise's wholesome relationship and very likeable characters produced a very solid 7.4 average rating among the group this week, with top-notch moe, very cute art and likeable, interesting characters this is a Shoujo manga to check out even if you aren't particularly into Shoujo, or Kaiju. For the final session of the semester on the 6th of April we will be reading Shuumatsu no Walkure or Record of Ragnarok, a manga about a tournament arc that takes place between Gods and various figures from historical legend, with the first fight being between Thor and the Chinese general Lu Bu. As always, we will be reading the first volume which comprises Chapters 1-4. If you have any thoughts, positive or negative, on this manga then do come along to the session on the last Wednesday of term!

That's all for this week's newsletter, have a great weekend everyone!
